

Handwritten text on a narrow strip of aged paper, oriented vertically. The text is written in a dark ink and appears to be a list or a series of entries. The characters are somewhat stylized and difficult to decipher, but they resemble a mix of Latin and possibly Greek or other ancient script. The paper is heavily stained and discolored, particularly with brown and black spots, suggesting significant age and wear. The text is arranged in a single column, with some characters appearing to be larger or more prominent than others, possibly indicating a title or a specific section. The overall appearance is that of an ancient manuscript fragment.
